Professional Experience

Melanie Harris is a member of Ice Miller's Intellectual Property and Competitive Business Practices Group. She focuses on litigating business disputes, and drafting and enforcing restrictive covenants and confidentiality agreements in the employment, sale of business and business-to-business contexts.

Harris earned her Bachelor of Arts in English composition from DePauw University in 1997. She attended the University of Pittsburgh School of Law, earning her juris doctorate, magna cum laude, in 2000, and was elected to membership in the Order of the Coif. While attending law school, she served as managing editor of the University of Pittsburgh Law Review, and was a teaching assistant for the Legal Writing Program.

Harris joined Ice Miller in April 2001 and is admitted to practice in Indiana.
