

50-STATE SUMMARY OF CURRENT BUSINESS LIMITATIONS

STATE	BUSINESSES LIMITATIONS
Alabama	In Alabama, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
Alaska	In Alaska, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
Arizona	In Arizona, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
Arkansas	In Arkansas, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
California	California ended the stay-at-home order on June 15. Vaccine verification or negative testing is required for large indoor events with crowds larger than 5,000.
Colorado	In Colorado, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
Connecticut	Effective May 19: Capacity restrictions are lifted on restaurants, retail stores, gyms, personal services, libraries and other businesses. Events at commercial and entertainment venues, such as movie theaters and bowling alleys, may operate until 12am.
Delaware	In Delaware capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.

LAST UPDATED: July 12, 2021

NOTE: Some local governments have issued separate stay at home orders that are not include on this summary.

This publication is intended for general information purposes only and does not and is not intended to constitute legal advice. The reader should consult with legal counsel to determine how laws or decisions discussed herein apply to the reader's specific circumstances.

STATE	BUSINESSES LIMITATIONS
	Read more: https://coronavirus.delaware.gov/frequently-asked-questions/#business
District of Columbia	In District of Columbia, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
Florida	In Florida, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
Georgia	In Georgia, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
Hawaii	All businesses are permitted to operate without any capacity limitations.
Idaho	In Idaho, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
Illinois	In Illinois, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
Indiana	In Indiana, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
Iowa	In Iowa, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
Kansas	In Kansas, all businesses and activities may operate if they can maintain at least 6 feet of distance between consumers (individuals or groups).

LAST UPDATED: July 12, 2021

NOTE: Some local governments have issued separate stay at home orders that are not include on this summary.

This publication is intended for general information purposes only and does not and is not intended to constitute legal advice. The reader should consult with legal counsel to determine how laws or decisions discussed herein apply to the reader's specific circumstances.

STATE	BUSINESSES LIMITATIONS
	Read more: https://governor.kansas.gov/EO-20-34-Phase-2-Executed.pdf Read more: https://covid.ks.gov/Reopen-Kansas-Framework-v6.2-5.19.20.pdf
Kentucky	In Kentucky, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
Louisiana	In Louisiana, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
Maine	In Maine, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
Maryland	In Maryland, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
Massachusetts	In Massachusetts, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
Michigan	In Michigan, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
Minnesota	In Minnesota, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
Mississippi	In Mississippi, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
Missouri	In Missouri, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.

LAST UPDATED: July 12, 2021

NOTE: Some local governments have issued separate stay at home orders that are not include on this summary.

This publication is intended for general information purposes only and does not and is not intended to constitute legal advice. The reader should consult with legal counsel to determine how laws or decisions discussed herein apply to the reader's specific circumstances.

STATE	BUSINESSES LIMITATIONS
Montana	In Montana, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
Nebraska	In Nebraska, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
Nevada	In Nevada, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
New Hampshire	In New Hampshire, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
New Jersey	In New Jersey, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
New Mexico	In New Mexico, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
New York	The state removed business capacity limits, to be replaced with space availability to maintain six feet of distancing. Read more: https://www.governor.ny.gov/news/video-audio-photos-rush-transcript-governor-cuomo-governor-murphy-and-governor-lamont-0
North Carolina	In North Carolina, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
North Dakota	In North Dakota, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.

LAST UPDATED: July 12, 2021

NOTE: Some local governments have issued separate stay at home orders that are not include on this summary.

This publication is intended for general information purposes only and does not and is not intended to constitute legal advice. The reader should consult with legal counsel to determine how laws or decisions discussed herein apply to the reader's specific circumstances.

STATE	BUSINESSES LIMITATIONS
Ohio	In Ohio, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
Oklahoma	In Oklahoma, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
Oregon	In Oregon, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
Pennsylvania	In Pennsylvania, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
Rhode Island	In Rhode Island, capacity restrictions have been lifted for most businesses. Nightclubs must limit capacity to 50% unless all patrons provide proof of vaccination. Read more: https://governor.ri.gov/newsroom/orders/
South Carolina	In South Carolina, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
South Dakota	Businesses were never required to close in South Dakota.
Tennessee	In Tennessee, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
Texas	In Texas, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.

LAST UPDATED: July 12, 2021

NOTE: Some local governments have issued separate stay at home orders that are not include on this summary.

This publication is intended for general information purposes only and does not and is not intended to constitute legal advice. The reader should consult with legal counsel to determine how laws or decisions discussed herein apply to the reader's specific circumstances.

STATE	BUSINESSES LIMITATIONS
Utah	In Utah, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
Vermont	In Vermont, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
Virginia	In Virginia, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
Washington	In Washington, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
West Virginia	In West Virginia, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
Wisconsin	In Wisconsin, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.
Wyoming	In Wyoming, capacity restrictions on businesses are no longer in effect.

LAST UPDATED: July 12, 2021

NOTE: Some local governments have issued separate stay at home orders that are not include on this summary.

This publication is intended for general information purposes only and does not and is not intended to constitute legal advice. The reader should consult with legal counsel to determine how laws or decisions discussed herein apply to the reader's specific circumstances.